Pope entrusts world to Mary: Before a congregation of more than 100,000 in St. Peter's Square, Pope Francis formally entrusted the world to Mary. "We are confident that each of us is precious in your sight," the pope said Oct. 13, facing the statue of Mary that normally stands in the shrine at Fatima, Portugal. "Guard our lives in your arms, bless and strengthen every desire for goodness." The short ceremony was the culmination of a special Marian Day organized for the Year of Faith. In his homily during the morning's Mass, Pope Francis celebrated Mary as a model of docility, fidelity and gratitude to God. In a catechetical talk, the pope said that all believers can emulate the mother of God by giving "human flesh to Jesus" when they assent freely to his call. "Believing in Jesus means giving him our flesh with the humility and courage of Mary, so that he can continue to dwell in our midst," the pope said. "It means giving him our hands, to caress the little ones and the poor; our feet, to go forth and meet our brothers and sisters; our arms, to hold up the weak and to work in the Lord's vineyard;

our minds, to think and act in the light of the Gospel; and especially our hearts, to love and to make choices in accordance with God's will." "Mary points to Jesus," he said. "She asks us to bear witness to Jesus, she constantly guides us to her son Jesus, because in him alone do we find salvation. He alone can change the water of our loneliness, difficulties and sin into the wine of encounter, joy and forgiveness."

Oct. 13 is the anniversary of the last apparition of Mary to three shepherd children at Fatima in 1917.
Two of the visionaries, Blessed Jacinta Marto and her brother Blessed Francisco Marto, were beatified by Blessed John Paul II in 2000. Their cousin, Sister Lucia de Jesus dos Santos, died in 2005, and three years later Pope Benedict exempted her from the usual five-year waiting period between a death and the start of a beatification cause. [Catholic News
